A Powerful Little Booklet on Christian Marriage

In this easy to read booklet, Mel Grams points out that to have a godly marriage, both partners must submit themselves to the Lordship of Jesus Christ. This is more than just attending church or trying to be good. This is surrendering our plans to Jesus and living according to His teachings in the New Testament. It is not only coming into a personal relationship with Jesus, but making a daily commitment to follow Him and obey His teachings.

A godly marriage is not a religious marriage—it is a truly joyful union where husband and wife love each other because Christ's love fills their hearts. In this book Mel reveals five steps toward having a successful Christian marriage. Suggested Donation $5.00, 31 pages.

Mel Grams was ordained to the ministry in 1951. Along with his wife Verna, they have served in continuous ministry for over fifty-seven years. Mel has served as a pastor both in the United States and Europe. He and his wife served as missionaries in West and South Africa as well as in Europe. Mel served as the academic dean for the International Correspondence Institute, Continental Bible College and the Genesis Discipleship Training Center. Mel also served as the director of training for Eurasia Teen Challenge. The last ten years of Mel's ministry have been devoted to teaching in churches and training schools in Europe, Africa and the U.S.A.
